Candleholders

The Pomegranate

Symbol of an abundance of wisdom and good deeds. It has been used for centuries to adorn Jewish ritual objects. In the biblical "song of song" and in Greek mythology there are allusions to the pomegranate's erotic powers. This candlestick can be displayed in close form, as a sculpture, or in open form to hold two candles. Original design by Anat Basanta

Available in aluminum only.

Ancient Candleholder

Offers a contemporary approach to the ancient oil lamps, used by our forefathers for lighting and rituals. As a pair, the Candleholders complete each other and resemble the Yin-Yang; the eastern symbol of cosmic harmony. Original design by Anat Basanta

Available in brass or aluminum.

Jewish Tradition

Sabra

A playful, imaginative version of the ancient Jewish Menorah. The individual "leaves" of the Sabra (Israeli "prickly pear" - tough on the outside, sweet on the inside) can be arranged at will, "growing" each night of the holiday. Original design by Anat Basanta

Available in aluminum only.

Mezuzah

"The princess looks absolutely magnificent, decked out in pearls..." Psalms 45:14

A clean contemporary surface conceals traditional ornamentation inside. Original design by Anat Basanta

Available in 3 different sizes, in brass or aluminum.

The Vine Leaf Plate

"...enjoyed the produce of their vines..." 1 Kings 5:5

The vine leaf, one of the seven indigenous species of the land of Israel, is a symbol of peace, blessing and fertility. Its imprint on this plate represents the fervent hope for peace that echoes from Biblical times through the modern history. Original design by Anat Basanta
